TORNADO PREPAREDNESS DAY – MARCH 14TH

Gov. Tim Kaine has proclaimed March 14th as Tornado Preparedness Day in Virginia. There will be a statewide drill at 9:45 a.m. The purpose of the drill is to provide an opportunity for schools, businesses and residents to test their emergency plans. The National Weather Service will issue a drill warning. It will be aired on radio and televisions. When the drill is activated, participants should move to a safe area in their building, crouch down and cover their heads. The best shelter is a basement or room without windows on the lowest level of the building.
